EXP-15 Analyze various types of web server weblogs tool.

- Aim:

To analyze various types of web servers access logs and generate statistical usage reports. Using webalizer analysis tool.

- Procedure:

① Launch tool: run the webalizer app

② import log file: select the input web server log

③ configure output: specify output target folder. where generated reports and HTML charts

④ Execute analysis: Click run webalizer to parse the log records.

⑤ view results: open the generated index.html report file in a web browser to inspect daily hourly, host and user-agent statistics

⑥ user agents & references client browser type. operating systems & URLs

- Result:

The web server log file (access_log) was successfully processed and analyzed using the webalizer tool. Comprehensive graphical & tabular reports covering hits were generated and interpreted